Mr. Jenffer's Card. Below will be found the card of the Hon. Daniel Jenifer, to which reference was made in our last issue. This distinguished whig states the grounds of his opposition to the whig candidate for the presidency with convincing force :

From the Washington Union:

PORT TOBACCO. (Md.,) August 10, 1852. My DEAR SIR: Yours of the 6th instant is about the fifteenth letter I have received of similar import; desiring to know " Whether h is my intention to support the nominee of the late Whig National Convention for President," &c . &c. . Immediately after the adjournment of that convention, I addressed a letter to the president of the convention, stating the reasons why I could not concur in support of that nomination. That letter was delayed being sent as directed, from deference to the opinions and wishes of friends from whom I entertain a high regard. Finding from your and other letters that my silence has been misinterpreted, and that I cannot remain in The services of the Rev. W.M. H. Christian have again been secured at an increased salary, having during the past year given the very best etidence of his entire qualifications and gentlemanly deportment. Should an Assistant be required, a competent Female will be employed to take charge many, very many, who agree with me in opinion; who are restrained from expressing it from the deli-Whig National Convention, members of Congress; and others representing a whig constituency. The National Whig Convention having nominated a candidate for the presidency to whom I cannot. support, it is due to myself, to you, and to the friends with whom I have so long acted, to assign briefly the reasons which induced me to differ from you and Academy, at $7 per month.

It is desirable that as many of the pupils as conveniently can, who intend entering this School, should be present at my political friends that I have ever been a consismy political friends that I have ever been a consistent whig, (not an ultra one.) and upon all occasions, when principle was not involved, have yielded my personal preferences to the better judgment of the majority. In every presidential election since 1828 I have gone with my friends in support of the nominee, though not of my own choice. From that period I have been an ardent, devoted friend to Henry Clay; and preferred him to all others; still I gave a zealous support to Gen. Harrison and to Gen. Taylor, in doing which there was no sacrifice of principle; it was a preference of men, acting upon and entertaining similar principles. Their opinfrons had been expressed and were known prior to their homination to be in accordance with the views of those who nomi-
